DR. McGRATH NAMED HOSPITAL PATHOLOGIST

Appointment of Dr. John R. McGrath of Manhattan Beach as chief of the department of pathology at the new Little Company of Mary Hospital here was announced this week by hospital officials.

Announcement of the appointment was made by Mother M. Genevieve, president of the hospital's board of directors, and Dr. John A. Wilson, president of the executive committee.

Citing Dr. McGrath's qualifications for the post, the officials pointed out that he attended the University of Idaho and the University of Southern California School of Medicine, and served his internship at the Santa Fe Coast Lines Hospital in Los Angeles. He served his residencies in pathology at the St. Louis City Hospital and at the Veterans Administration Sawtelle Hospital in Los Angeles.

DR. McGRATH served four years in the armed forces during World War II and two years in Japan during the Korean War.

He is a member of the Los Angeles County Medical Assn., the California Medical Assn., the American Medical Assn., the Los Angeles Society of Pathologists, the California Society of Pathologists, and the College of American Pathologists.

He served as chief pathologist at Harbor General Hospital from 1954 to 1956, and is at present pathologist at the Centinela Valley Community Hospital in Inglewood.

In addition he held the post of full time instructor of pathology until 1958 at the UCLA School of Medicine, and is at present clinical instructor in pathology there.
